

February 3, 2012

UPSTREAM PEOPLE GALLERY

13th Annual Realism Juried Online International Art Exhibition

This year's "13th Annual Realism Juried Online International Art Exhibition" is a showcase of highly selected works by some very talented artists. The gallery is thankful for the artists exhibiting in this show for their various approaches to the realistic style. Following are some comments about some of the pieces.

"MIKE MAZER of Mattapoisett, Massachusetts is one of the finest watercolorists, up there with such painters as Winslow Homer and others. His sense of atmosphere and clarity of imagery is highly accomplished as seen in his watercolor "Early Morning Light" wherein he captures the wonderful glow of the morning. With the attention to the many details of "Kaylie" he contrasts the strong rectilinear shapes on the curvilinear water reflections. The smoothness of the water is captured well as it repeats the horizontal flow of the boat and dock in "Red, White and Blue Reflections". And in "Tall Ship at Mass Maritime" he gives a sense of the human touch with the people lined up gazing upon the large ship."

Early Morning Light*

Hiller's Cove

Kaylie*

Red, White, Blue*
Reflections

Tall Ship at Mass*
Maritime

*Special Recognition Award

All in all, Upstream People Gallery is proud of all the artists who were selected for this realist show. We are delighted to see such an array of subject matter from various parts of the world.

Sincerely,

Laurence Bradshaw
Curator, Professor of Art

